ACCR
American Chiropractic College of Radiology

3330 Cobb Parkway
Suite 324 #300
Acworth, GA 30101
www.accr.org

President
Erin Ruof, DC, DACBR

Vice-President
Nicole Zipay, DC, DACBR

Secretary
Whitney Fuqua, DC, DACBR

Treasurer
Lauren Tollefson, DC, DACBR

Past-President
Jose Serrano, DC, DACBR

American Chiropractic College of Radiology Grant for Diagnostic Imaging Residency CCE Accreditation Fees

The American Chiropractic College of Radiology (ACCR) would like to offer any Chiropractic Program Diagnostic Imaging Residency (DIR) a grant of up to $3000.00 towards the application fee and self-study fee of a Council on Chiropractic Education (CCE) or equivalent accreditation process for the purpose of accreditation of the DIR program.

Fill and submit this application to the ACCR executive committee: grants@accr.org

Date: _____

Affiliated Chiropractic College: _____

Residency Director: _____

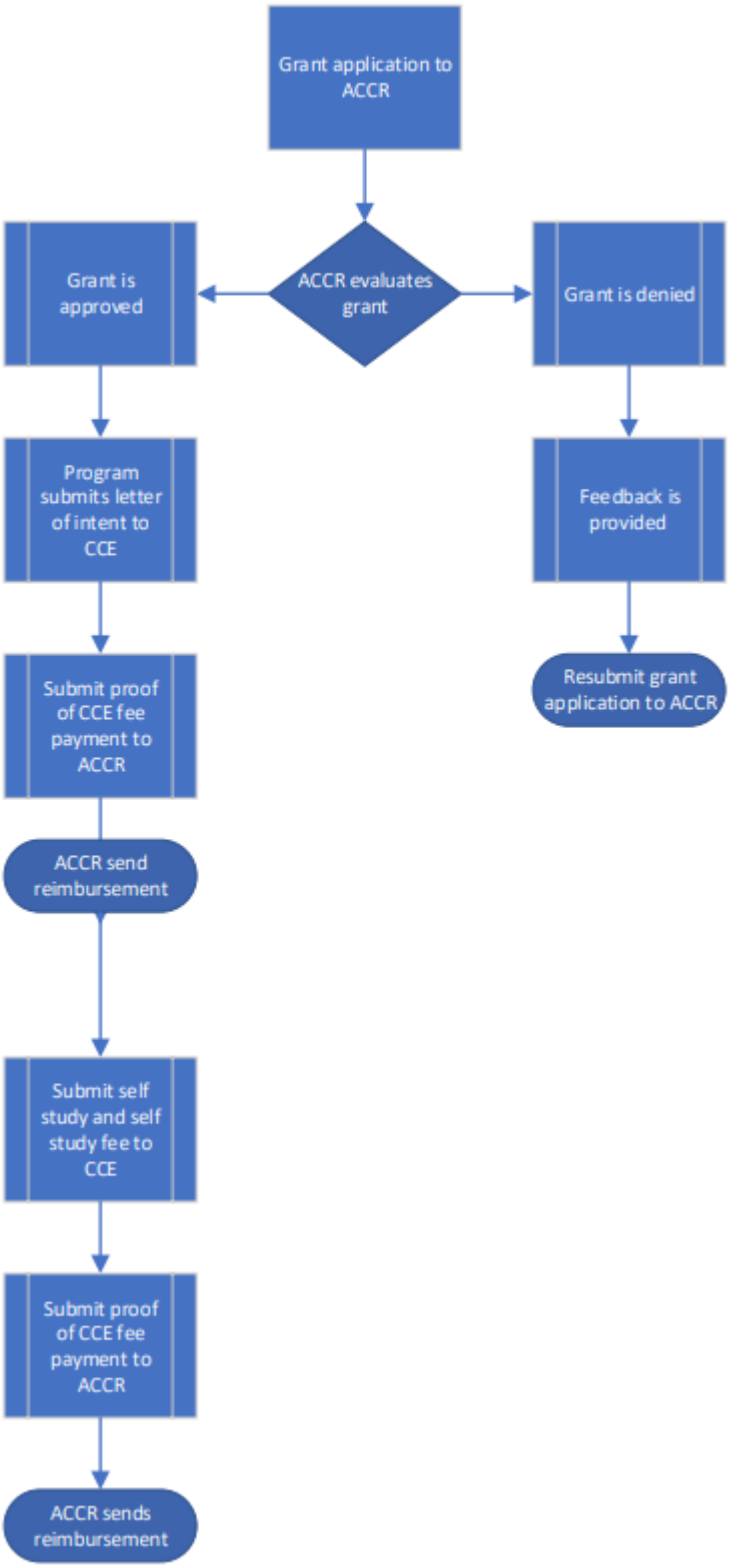
Mailing Address for Check: _____

Check made out to: _____

Once this application has been approved, the DIR program applying for accreditation through the CCE need only send the ACCR a receipt for payment to CCE for the accreditation application fee and/or payment to the CCE for the self-study fee in order to receive reimbursement in the following disbursements:

- Up to $1000.00 after submission of the initial application/letter of intent to the CCE.
- Up to $2000.00 after the submission of the self-study to the CCE.

See flowchart below:



Grant application to ACCR
ACCR evaluates grant
Grant is approved
Grant is denied
Program submits letter of intent to CCE
Feedback is provided
Submit proof of CCE fee payment to ACCR
Resubmit grant application to ACCR
ACCR send reimbursement
Submit self study and self study fee to CCE
Submit proof of CCE fee payment to ACCR
ACCR sends reimbursement